

2016 represents an important achievement for our company, turning 50 years this year.

This is an arrival and yet a starting point, an invitation to open the doors to the future and to innovation, by following our continuous growth process.

